To whom it may concern,

Thank you for enrolling in the Afro-Dance Camp! Our camp that has been held across Canada for youth, kids and adults for the past 6 years is now in Taramacouta, at Camp Jackson Dodds! The Camp focuses on physical activity, cultural enhancement, (African), teamwork (with peers), self-esteem workshops, creativity through storytelling and diary writing. As this is the third annual Afro Dance Camp, there will be NEW workshops such as Gumboot/stomp dance, Hip Hop Dance and much more!

Storytelling is an integral part of the African tradition, where oral stories are relayed and passed down from one generation to the next. We are privileged to have a Kenyan Professional Storyteller who will provide an insight into storytelling and encourage our campers to be creative.

The self-esteem workshops focus on building and discovering of self, posture and image related conceptions of society and oneself.

The Afro-Dance Camp showcases different African dances from Zimbabwe, Gambia, Ghana, South Africa, Senegal and the Congo. All the instructors are from the designated regions in Africa. Furthermore, we have Gumboot Dance, Carriibbean Dance Instruction and Hip Hop workshops in rotation.

As you can see from the line up, and just the few highlights mentioned above, this camp will be all rounded for the individuals attending. For this reason we have created some guidelines and regulations for the code of conduct for the camp. In respect of each other and our campers, among many other goals, one of our goals is to create a safe, enjoyable, learning environment to nurse cultural and self-development.

There are 5 Camp Leaders (3 Female, 2 Male), who will be in charge of the students. All participants are required to be there HALF an hour before the bus departs for check in, loading of bags, introduction to camp leaders and groups.
